Subject: Final SW News
Stormwater Newsletter Draft 4.pdf

Hello Susy and Fred: at long last, here is the final version of SW News. I have confirmed that the last set of edits were made so I think this is good to go. Hopefully, this will serve as the “day-before” head’s up that we discussed at our meeting? We would like to send this out tomorrow. If you have any final concerns, just let us know.

Thanks for your close collaboration on this. Now that we have a template and a communication strategy worked out, we are cautiously optimistic that the next issues of this newsletter will get out more efficiently. As we discussed at our meeting last week, we are on track to get you the draft NOI newsletter by June 9th.

Thanks again,

Anne
